An Outstanding Opportunity To Donate

The "Negro Spiritual" Scholarship Foundation is preserving the Negro spiritual song as part of America's heritage and providing tuition assistance help to young African Americans bound for college. Winners of singing competitions held for eleventh and twelfth graders in Florida, the District of Columbia, Massachusetts and Tennessee earn a grant to help pay their first year of college.

The opportunity:

Our foundation annually presents a free concert of Negro spirituals to showcase the music we preserve for the benefit of the entire community. This year's program is slated for Sunday, 4th October 2009 at seven o'clock in the evening at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church in historic Eatonville, and will feature bass Paul An backed by a mixed chorus of master singers under the direction of Tai Oney. 2009 (Florida) GRADY-RAYAM PRIZE Vocalists Azschrielle Jackson, Ryan Mack, Denée Benton and Latonio Nichols will perform as well. Individuals can support the educational dreams of these budding artists and deserving scholars by submitting tribute pages that will appear in the program booklet for this event. Tribute pages are available at $250 (regular booklet full page) and may pay homage to any Foundation-related individual or subject. Bear in mind that good taste and sound judgment should prevail. Our staff will create a unique graphic page utilizing the text (and imagery, if any) you submit. Submission deadline is end of the workday on Wednesday, 16th September 2009. Donations for tribute pages can be given in the form of a check made out to "NS" Scholarship Foundation, and with the use of debit or credit cards carrying a VISA, MASTERCARD, or AMERICAN EXPRESS logo. These donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. A personal letter of acknowledgment, printed on letterhead and addressed to you, will document your donation. You will enjoy reserved seating for a total of four guests.

We thank you in advance for your kind consideration of our request.
